

BNP PARIBAS

The bank
for a changing world

BIOGRAPHY

José Placido

CEO of Corporate and Institutional Banking
(CIB) Americas

José Placido was appointed the CEO of BNP Paribas Corporate and Institutional Banking (CIB) Americas in September 2020.

Mr. Placido has over 20 years of financial services experience. Prior to his current role, he was Global Head of Client Development for BNP Paribas Securities Services and Global Head of the Financial Institutions Coverage (FIC) Group.

Before joining BNP Paribas in 2014 Mr. Placido was CEO of RBC Investor Services (RBC Dexia) from 2006-2013. He held several senior positions during his tenure at Royal Bank of Canada (RBC), most notably as Executive Vice-President of RBC Global Services from 2002-2006.

He served as Senior Vice President of RBC Institutional & Investor Services of Royal Bank of Canada from 1999-2002. From 1996 to 1999, he served as Managing Director of RBC Global Investor Services based in London UK.

Mr. Placido began his career in institutional investor services when he joined Royal Trust Corporation of Canada in 1988 in Montreal.

He has served as a Director of CLS Group Holdings AG and as chair for the Canadian Capital Markets Association (CCMA).

Mr. Placido is a graduate of Montreal's McGill University.